THE TRUTH

WHERE I'M FROM

" You're better than this place."

People do not live in places where they can't see themselves thriving or where they don't feel a strong sense of welcoming and belonging.

TWO QUESTIONS

What's one thing you love about your community?

What is one thing you wish you could help heal in your community?

3RD ANNUAL YOUNG ENTREPRENEUR'S ARTS & CRAFT FAIR

- + The merchants of Kimmswick are hosting their 3rd Annual Young Entrepreneur Arts & Crafts Fair. They are looking to fill their historic streets with individuals 17 and younger that have started a business or brand that would like the opportunity to have their own sales booth and sell their items to the general public.
- + All items are applicable: art, photography, jewelry, baked goods must be sealed and labeled with ingredients. Hand crafted items, special talents, and services.

LAFAYETTE MAIN STREET - ALABAMA

Addie, a fourth grader at Chambers Academy, began selling snow cones this summer at camp. She liked it so much she decided to ask LaFayette Main Street Director DeAnna Hand to open her stand at the Movie Night Under the Stars event on Sept. 24.

After that, Hand recommended that Addie look into the Auburn Ideas Jam.

"She has such a dedication and just a wonderful entrepreneurial spirit about her ...," Hand said. "Someone from LaFayette being able to explore opportunities and really encourage that entrepreneur spirit is something that LaFayette Main Street is very excited to see."

LaFayette Main Street

Addie Moultrie WON!!!! This young entrepreneur from LaFayette participated with the Auburn Ideas Jam this evening and won!! She pitched her Snow Cone Business alongside 66 other contestants and took home a check to support her business growth and entrepreneurs spirit!

LaFayette Main Street is so proud of you Addie and know you will do great things! 💥
